We Can Help

Dear Constituent:

One of the most important and fulfilling aspects of my job as your state senator is helping you to better understand your state government and, even more importantly, helping you resolve issues that affect you as a citizen of our state.

Please be aware that my office is available to assist you with questions or problems you may have with a state agency. While we cannot ask an agency to alter its set rules, we can assist you in working with the agency, ensuring that your rights are respected and that any procedural errors are corrected. If you have a question about state government, need help dealing with a state agency, or want to offer an opinion regarding proposed state legislation or an existing state law, please call my legislative office in Hartford at 1-800-842-1421, or send me an e-mail at Anthony.Guglielmo@cga.ct.gov.

Please be aware, however, that there are some problems that do not fall under the purview of state government. For example, as your state senator I cannot provide legal advice nor can I interfere with the judicial process. If you have a question or concern regarding an issue best addressed by your local or federal government officials I, and my legislative staff, will attempt to direct you to the correct government agency.

Keep in mind that I want to help. If you have any doubt regarding whether my legislative office is the right place to look for answers to your questions, express your concerns, or offer an idea, please contact us. Chances are we can help, or direct you to someone who can.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
